

HALL OF FAME TRAINING

August 13 – 20, 2006
Cooperstown, New York

Train with Baseball Factory for a week in Cooperstown, New York, home of the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum

Learn about the history of baseball while training from morning till night with our professional staff of former college coaches, former professional players and professional scouts

Hall of Fame Training Offers Players:

- ◆ The opportunity to attend the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum in Cooperstown, New York. Players will get to tour the museum and learn about the history of the game and the stars of the past. This is baseball at its roots, and you'll get to experience it first hand.
- ◆ Daily baseball training through skill-specific drills. Players will get numerous repetitions while receiving hands-on instruction from the Baseball Factory staff.
- ◆ Competitive game play against select players from across the country. We will test the instruction that you have learned at this camp by having you scrimmage and perform in game situations.
- ◆ The opportunity to learn from our experienced staff which includes professional scouts, former professional players and former college coaches. These coaches will work one-on-one with every player to make adjustments that will lead to success in future games.
- ◆ The chance to learn techniques in conditioning, speed and strength, and weight training.
- ◆ In depth college recruiting, scouting and player development seminars with our experienced staff.
