JANUARY 12-13, 2008

GEORGIA WORLD CONGRESS CENTER
ATLANTA, GA

Are you a committed player who is ready to advance to that "next level"; whether that be high school, college or professional ball?

Introducing the Atlanta Baseball Players Show & Conference, held in conjunction with the 2008 Braves FanFest. The two events will combine the excitement of Braves FanFest with a unique conference and exhibition program designed for elite young players from across the southeast.

Come to this event not only to meet your favorite Braves players, but to swing the newest bats, try on the best spikes, and learn about camps, colleges, and recruitment services.

THE PLAYERS CONFERENCE

How do you get to the "next level?" How do you navigate the recruitment process? What skills are coaches really looking for? Do video services work? Are showcases important? For parents and their sons who are interested in playing at a higher level, there are lots of options and lots of questions. We'll assemble a line-up of coaches from every level, professional scouts, consultants, trainers and service providers to make sense of it all with a full slate of seminars and presentations

The Atlanta Baseball Players Show and Conference will run in conjunction with Braves FanFest 2008. Come and collect autographs, participate in Q&A sessions and more. Participating players in 2007 included

Chipper Jones, Jeff Francoeur, Tim Hudson and Andruw Jones.

And, FanFest Interactive Stations throughout the exhibit hall invite you to truly be a part of the game as you test your speed and agility at hitting and speed throw stations as well as pitching, timed run, pop fly field stations and others.
