

BALTIMORE/WASHINGTON INVITATIONAL (BWI) WORLD SERIES

TEAM ONE AND BASEBALL FACTORY ARE PROUD TO ANNOUNCE THE INAUGURAL
BWI WORLD SERIES

June 16 – 18, 2006 at Baseball Factory Field
Home of the University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC) Retrievers

Compete with other players from your county against the best players from Maryland, Washington D.C., and Northern Virginia

This invitation only tournament will give you the chance to perform in front of scouts and college coaches from the Mid-Atlantic region

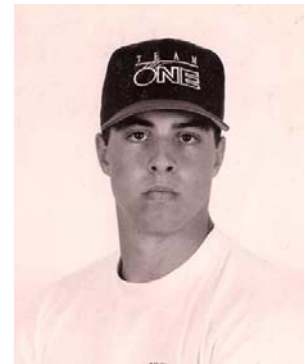

You will be able to display your baseball talents during tournament games and a showcase

BWI World Series Breakdown:

- ◆ Players will be split up onto teams by region
 - ◆ DC/Northern Virginia and surrounding counties
 - ◆ Baltimore and surrounding counties
- ◆ Teams will play three games against the best players from across the Mid-Atlantic region
- ◆ Teams will be coached by current high school coaches and Baseball Factory and Team One coaches
- ◆ Players will perform in a showcase that includes the 60-yard dash, batting practice, defensive workouts, etc.
- ◆ College coaches and professional scouts will be on hand at the games and player showcase to evaluate talent

Tentative Itinerary:*

- Friday, June 16 Morning Showcase (DC/NoVA Teams)
Afternoon World Series Games (Pool Play)
Evening World Series Games (Pool Play)
- Saturday, June 17 Morning Showcase (Baltimore Teams)
Afternoon World Series Games (Pool Play)
Evening World Series Games (Pool Play)
- Sunday, June 18 Morning World Series Games (Semi-finals)
Championship & Consolation Games

Mark Teixeira – Texas Rangers
Former Team One Player & Maryland High School Standout

David Wright – New York Mets
Former Baseball Factory Player & Virginia High School Standout

ITINERARY SUBJECT TO CHANGE*

