BASEBALL FACTORY

STAFF

Mike Baker: Mike has a long history in professional baseball and has been working with Baseball Factory for several years. He has previously served as an international and full-time scout with the Orioles, Yankees, Mets, and Rangers - and most recently was a Major League Scout with the Pittsburgh Pirates. In addition to scouting, Mike also held coaching positions with the Orioles & Yankees, as well as the Netherlands Olympic Team.

Bill Bliss: Bill is a former minor league pitching coach with the Philadelphia Phillies. Before joining the Phillies he was an area scouting supervisor for the Baltimore Orioles. Before his scouting career, Bill was drafted in the 2nd round by the Chicago Cubs in 1991 of the MLB Amateur Draft. He was with the Chicago Cubs for the four years and was then traded to the Colorado Rockies and played with them for two seasons. Bill played his college baseball at Villanova University.

Jon Chastine: Jon has been with the Factory since 2013. He works most of the events in the southwest region, including regional PREP tryouts, player development events, and with our Under Armour National Tournament Division. He played college baseball at Cal Baptist University in Riverside, CA. He served at Bethesda University as an infield coach for 2 years, and is currently the head coach at Vista Del Lago High School.

Jimmy Johnson: Jimmy brings nearly 40 years of professional baseball experience to the Baseball Factory. He managed professionally from Class A – AAA with the Colorado Rockies. He was also the infield, hitting, and field coordinator for the Rockies. He most recently served as the hitting coach for team China during the WBC, and has worked with Major League Baseball & their facilities in China. Jimmy conducts professional hitting and defensive lessons in the Phoenix area. He played professionally for seven seasons with the Houston Astros and has coached the Senior National Team in Prague.

Dan Mooney: Dan serves as the Executive Director of the Exclusive Program. Dan began his collegiate career as a catcher at Brevard Junior College. He later transferred to North Carolina State University where he was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference performer. After college, Dan played professionally in the Boston Red Sox organization where he reached the double-A level before being forced to retire after an injury.

Javi Ochoa: Javi serves as a regional director of Baseball Player Development Events with Baseball Factory, running many of the events in the southwest. During the spring season, he serves as an assistant coach at Chino HS, in Chino, California. Early in his coaching career, Javi spent two years at Chino HS before moving on to Diamond Bar High School, and Mount San Antonio College - where he served as the catching coach in Walnut, CA. In his playing days, Javi was a participant at the Team One West Showcase in 2005. He played collegiate baseball at Azusa Pacific University. He has been working with Baseball Factory since 2010.

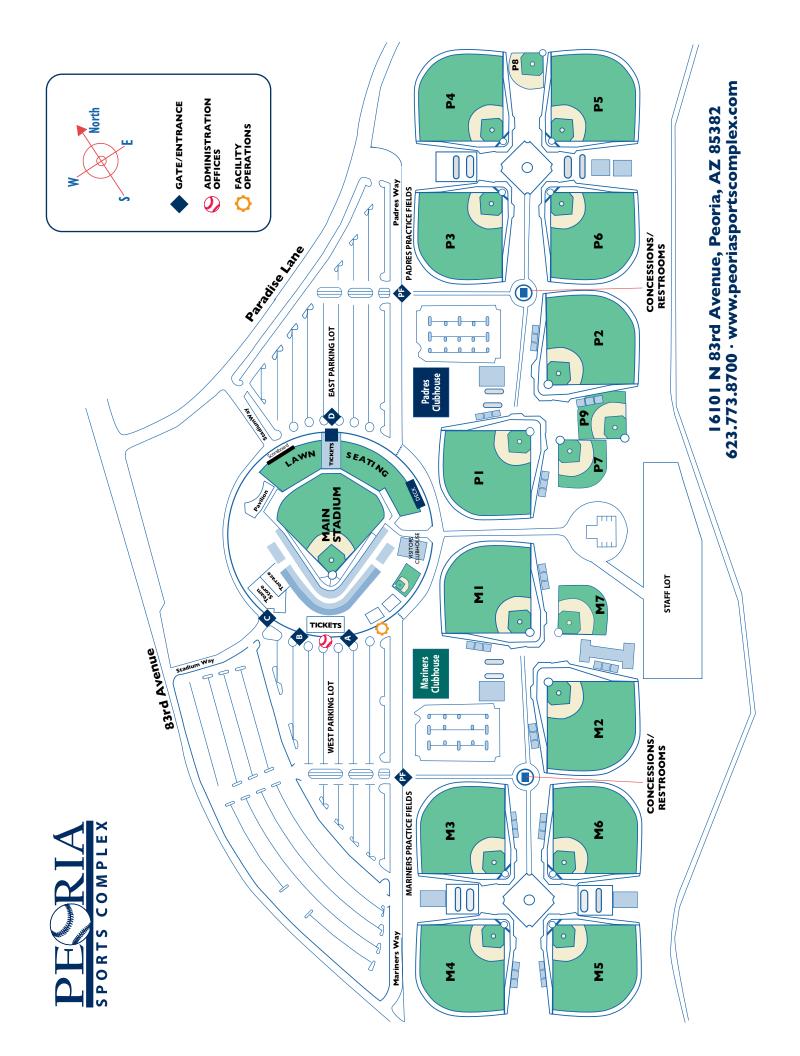

David O'Neil: David O'Neil is a Baseball Factory Alum who competed in events during High School. As a native of Ludlow, VT - David met his college coach Rick Sofield while working with Baseball Factory's Exclusive Program. He went on to be a 4 year standout player for Sofield at the University of South Carolina Beaufort, a new program that quickly established a history of success. O'Neil helped lead the Sandsharks to an NAIA World Series in his senior season, and went on to coach with Beaufort. Dave coached Cambridge HS in Atlanta this past spring and currently works Player Development Events with Baseball Factory.

Kevin Riggs: Riggs was a standout player at East Carolina University and was drafted by the reds. He spent 7 years in the minors and was selected to the All-Star Team four times. He was among the top 10 Batting Leaders three times and was the Norwich Navigators M.V.P & Offensive Player of the Year in 1996. Riggs spent time coaching in the Rockies organization from 2007-2014 and has since moved to the Pittsburgh Pirates as a hitting coach.
